

PRESS RELEASE
September 2008

PETER J. WEISHAAR WAS A FEATURED SPEAKER AT FIRE DISTRICT OFFICERS LEGISLATIVE WORKSHOP

On September 20, 2008, Peter J. Weishaar, Esq., was one of several featured speakers at the Western New York Fire District Legislative Association's 2008 Workshop. He discussed several topics of interest to New York fire districts, including the administration of youth programs, and the resolutions and referenda required for disposing of surplus fire district property.

Peter began his practice as an associate with the firm in 1996, and he became a partner in 2004. His practice is primarily focused on litigation. He represents businesses and individuals across a broad spectrum of civil litigation matters, including contract and business disputes, labor and employment matters, construction, banking, health care, civil rights and personal injury litigation. Peter has represented clients before administrative agencies and in state and federal trial and appellate courts.

In addition to civil litigation, Peter's practice also includes ongoing representation of several of the firm's municipal clients, including several fire districts, as well as general representation of businesses and individuals in areas ranging from risk assessment and general corporate counseling to the negotiation and preparation of contracts and other documents.

McConville, Considine, Cooman & Morin, P.C. is a full service law firm based in Rochester, New York, that has been providing quality legal services to businesses and individuals since 1979. With 12 attorneys and a full paralegal and support staff, the firm is large enough to provide the necessary expertise in a broad range of practice areas, yet small enough to allow us to devote prompt, personal attention to our clients.

Our clients are diverse. They include individuals, numerous manufacturing and service industry businesses, local governments and health care professionals and provider groups, facilities and associations. Although many of our clients are located throughout Upstate New York, we also represent clients in Downstate New York and New England. We also serve as local counsel to a number of out-of-state clients and their attorneys who have litigation pending in Western New York courts.
